

Leonardo "Telehuman" Project

1999-2001

Project activities

Leonardo 'Telehuman' project to:

- Promote vocational training through increasing co-operation between universities and enterprises in the areas of technology transfer and application
- Promoting continuing training, enhancing continuing skills adaptation in order to satisfy the companies needs, to reduce unemployment and to enhance personal development
- Creating a national network of training centres specialised in innovative training and in the transfer of technology from universities to enterprises.

Type of services provided

- Assistance in human resources regarding the management of long wave telecommunication networks.
- Assessment of training needs in telecommunication; reparation, design and implementation of 8 modules on CD-ROM and the internet.
- French, German, Greek and Slovak translations.
- Dissemination and commercialisation of the products.

Country

Austria,
Belgium,
France,
Greece,
Slovakia

Partners

Info ConsultGmbH (AU),
Zeus (BE)
SOL (Switzerland)
IDEC (GR)
ELFA Kosice (SK)
FEI TU (SK)
ZUZ (SK)
Slovak Telecom (SK)
Slovak CCI (SK)

Overall project value : €200 000
Origin of funding : European Commission